This place is really really crowded and even the takeaway line is long but it is definitely worth the wait. I love their packaging and this is perfect for picnic along Watsons bay. What User doesn't like about Fish & Chippery: We ordered and paid for 2 pots of peppermint tea for a total of $9. First we were told there was no peppermint so we could choose from other selections. I said I didn't like any of the others and miraculously peppermint was found. I asked for a kettle to be boiled rather than using tepid water from the coffee machine. I was told everywhere in the world you use 90 degree water not boiling water to brew tea. Wrong - it...
