Great little cafe in natural surrounds. They have a great range of gluten free cakes and biscuits and the indigicake is great. The kids love playing in the bush, sand pit and on the flying fox just a short walk from the cafe. What User doesn't like about Redland IndigiScapes Cafe:

eating was nice and smooth to die, but the staff was missing on the inviting side. bad customer service. we had not booked a table and found many tables reserved, but sat empty for the 40mins we were there. I said we could go away and eat under the trees and that was obvious when the lunch arrived in a box. they wait, the participants quite repulsive and obviously not happy that we're going to the .. bit of posture....
