You don't normally expect to find great food in the "out of the way, end of the road, can't go anywhere else, not much happening here" sort of place. But at the Salty Squid you certainly will find great food and the "remote" location just became your new seaside tranquil hideaway place to eat! read more. What User doesn't like about Salty Squid Cafe:

Booked a table as we were told it is normally busy. We were told the seafood platter is the best so ordered one. Also ordered garlic bread but unfortunately it did not arrive. It was on the bill though and was removed when I told them we did not get it. Food was very good but some of it was over cooked. Calamari was a little too brown. Service was great but we were a little put off when the tables around us and one o... read more. The restaurant
