A little bit of chocolate is good for you...at least that's what I like to tell myself. Seriously Chocolate is on Taylor's Road next door to the Little Singapore in Burnt Pine and a great place to indulge in some locally made chocolates and other delights. You can sit and relax whilst you enjoy coffee/milkshakes and other treats. Seating is available both inside or out at level, or there is the takeaway option with man... read more. What User doesn't like about Seriously Chocolate:

Had coffee chocolate with friends.. coffee average.. chocolate lovely. Went back two days later as I was told there would be a better selection of chocolate to take home for grandchildren. Bought $26 of chocolate and was charged a $3.82 surcharge on top of that for an over the counter purchase as it was a public holiday. I can understand that if dining in even though we had dined elsewhere on the island that day with... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. At Seriously Chocolate in Kingston, exquisite Australian dishes are freshly prepared for you with a lot of devotion and the pure products like bush tomatoes and caviar limes, The guests of the restaurant are also thrilled with the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
