We have been going here a lot over the years and we made an impulsive decision to visit Portland for the weekend and have a meal at the "Clock". God it was good!! The oyster Kilpatrick with pork belly was divine! Washed down with a Crawford River Sav Blanc, I was on my way to heaven. Then I had the beef cheek ragu with a Crawford River Cab Merlot and my taste buds were definitely in heaven. The food, the wine and the... read more. What User doesn't like about Clock by the Bay:

Recommended by friends as one of the best in Portland. Unfortunately 8 out of 10 of us were disappointed. The serving size is small. Side salad dish did not come out with the main course. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. In Clock by the Bay in Portland, they prepare crispy pizza using a traditional method, served straight out of the oven, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here. There are also scrumptious meals available, typical for Europe, and you can look forward to the delicious traditional seafood cuisine.
