With a group of friends had dinner at the "Emperor" Chinese 9 in group, all meals arrived together by order and from the discussion around the table all were complimentary of meals. Service throughout the evening was quite good. Bill was split by order and no issues with this at the end of the night as far as who ordered what etc, would recommend to anyone travelling through Seymour and no hesitation going back if in... We dropped in here recently on our way north and decided to have some takeaway. We chose Curry Chicken and Mongolian Beef served with fried rice. We both agreed that the serves were a very good size but the flavour was nothing special. These meals were very reasonably priced at $9.50 each but they lacked quality in taste. In future we will probably visit the Seymour Club for a meal as overall this was ordinary Chinese... read more.
