A group of us went for the christmas in july event. The food was really good and well catered for with such a large amount of people. Even santa arrived , christmas trees were up. The tribute acts were not great but the atmosphere made up for that. What User doesn't like about The Woodvale Tavern:

Went to the Woodvale today for lunch with my daughter and to say it was disappointing would be an understatement. We ordered the steak pies and what a mistake that turned out to be. The potatoes were like slop and the vegetables cold and undercooked. The pie I received was cold in the middle and inedible. I had no option but to hand it back and get a refund. While I was getting my refund another patron was also in th... read more.
