Came here for Chinese on our first trip up the coast from Perth. The food was very good with large portions. The place is not large but cosy. Nearby is a bottle shop as it is BYO very handy and it is part of a small shopping centre so parking was not an issue. There is also takeaway at the restaurant so wait times can be a little longer in very busy periods. We came as a 2 couples unannounced on two occasions Friday and... read more. What User doesn't like about Duncraig Garden Chinese Restaurant:

Prawn cocktails are meant to have cocktail sauce not mayo..... Chicken sweet corn soup was really gluggy and thick. Tom yum soup, only two things in it was spinach and celery. At least the spring rolls were nice read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations.
