We really enjoyed our meal here and found the food delicious and the service friendly. I found that the menu didn't offer much variety in pricing - it is a set price for all mains. The ambience is nice but the open kitchen does dominate the space. Would go back again but wasn't my favourite of Bathurst. What User doesn't like about

Cobblestone Lane Restaurant:

Went for or anniversary dinner. Have been before and know its not cheap (most expensive restaurant in Bathurst) but had good lunches and happy to pay for a great evening. To be frank it was very ordinary. My Salmon was overcooked. Wife's pork belly very fatty and not crisped. Restaurant smelled of cooking fat from open kitchen. 3 tables all night on a Saturday night tells you something!. At Cobblestone Lane Restaurant in Bathurst, you get a plentiful brunch for breakfast and can enjoy at your discretion, In addition, they serve you typical Australian meals with ingredients such as bush tomatoes and finger limes. Of course, we must not forget the large range of coffee and tea specialties in this eatery, It is possible to chill at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
