What User likes about Vines at 139: Travelling back north we hunted online for a good quick food stop. I rang first & a gorgeous young man answered assuring us of good food & a welcoming atmosphere. The beautiful waitresses were all delightful to us after their busy Sunday Breakfast day, still at 1pm they had smiles & loads of kindness. The food was superb & very reasonable, excellent coffee & wow the hot home made apple pie mmmmmmm ☺ read more. What User doesn't like about Vines at 139:

Great venue. Asian pulled pork tender but not quite Asian. Chicken salad tender, fresh veggies, nice sauce. Lamb blackstrap tender but a bit oily. Friendly service. Concerned to see wait staff behind counter eating food, licking fingers then serving cakes etc. Don't they get a proper food break and their wash hands? Oh, but that would have been difficult as there was no soap in the ladies. Restaurant owners should re... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Vines at 139 even more worthwhile, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this establishment sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. In case you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch is offered to you, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
