I was staying at the Mantra and was recommended to try this place on the day i arrived by the reception staff. (Thankyou ladies) for a little place it packs a punch the food was seriously tasty, the staff were super nice. When i got...there it had people waiting outside for takeaways and the tables inside and outside were full, this is always a really good sign, I loved the pork belly so so good. Thankyou for a great... read more. What Anibal Kemmer

doesn't like about Wok & Ladle: Thai Eatery:

Owing to the lack of restaurants around east Perth and my laziness to drive further, I decided to try this newcomer... My wife wanted beef on the pad Thai so through phone, I asked if it's possible to change and the seller happily said they can change asking me to choose one from the original chicken and prawns. I opted chicken but when I went there to collect, they charged me $3 extra for the beef! If he'd told me e... read more.

The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Wok & Ladle: Thai Eatery from East Perth is a good bar, there are also tasty vegetarian recipes on the menu. Furthermore, they serve you flavorful seafood menus, Furthermore, the guests love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
