When ever in Melbourne it would be a crime for us not to visit this institution. Always the very best of service, superb fresh and tasty food and more than just your traditional Chinese. They have managed to keep up with the. Times with innovative tasty fresh food. The waiters and staff are professional, friendly and helpful in every way. So good we managed to sneak in two meals over our long weekend. Superb as always. What User doesn't like about Flower Drum:

The service was excellent. Everything else was awful. Bland, tasteless and presented awfully. I cannot understand why the place is packed and popular when genuinely I could have got better food and atmosphere down the road for 10% of cost. I have lived in Asia for 8 years and this was the worst representation of food from China I have ever tasted. Flower Drum from Melbourne is a good choice for a bar, if you want to have a drink after work, having a beer and hang out with friends, appetizing vegetarian meals are also on the menu available. The meals are prepared in a original Asian way, The table guests of the establishment also consider the comprehensive variety of various coffees and tea specialties that the guesthouse offers.
