We tried this restaurant as a group of 6 and were seated upstairs. After ordering a tonne of food, our favourite was by far the crispy duck (of which we ordered two servings). The service was efficient but the female owner was particularly friendly and lovely. If you purchase wine from Tom Pockett Cellars (the wine bar three doors down) they allow you to BYO with no corkage fee. I thought that this was a lovely gestu... read more. What User doesn't like about Kerabu Restaurant:

The place was very crowded with regulars, and we had open seating upstairs. Don't bother! The food was watered down for the locals with no idea of authentic Thai food. Red curry was full of coconut with a very slight hint of spice; green curry was sweet with coconut milk and sugar. Belacan spicy eggplant had no belacan or chilli. Just oily and bland. Service was slow (needed 3 reminders for eggplant and long wait for... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served.
