When I meet ppl up north and they ask me what is Bunbury famous for, the best answer I can come up with is "Joes chilli dogs". If you come to Bunbury you got to get yourself one, straight out the oven, so crunchy so delicious so meaty and like easily 12 inches of bliss make no mistake you will be working it off on the treadmill for the next week, but It's so worth it, specially after a few beers and or wines. Do your... read more. What User doesn't like about Joe's Pizza House:

we went to the front door, it was broken and were directed to use the rear entrance, made an unilluminated track in an unilluminated parking place. we ordered 2 pizzas. a few people can get in and talk to the staff and order and pay. her order was done before ours, this led to an extended waiting period of about 45 minutes, in no phase we were told that it was a long waiting period. the pizzas were good, easy to leav...
