Genuine historic pub. Decor is a bit dated and it's a bit run down but the staff are very hospitable and friendly. Food was great. Took a while to arrive but it was busy which is a great thing to see in a small country town. read more. What User doesn't like about Royal Exchange Hotel - Restaurant:

Had to find staff to place a lunch order after a long wait. Rang the bell several times and two different diners went in opposite directions to find someone so we could order. One entered the actual kitchen after heavy footsteps on the passage way went unheard. The meal wasn't up to the standard we'd received on previous visits. Not a cheap lunch which didn't meet our standards. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. For those who want to a cocktail after work and hang out with friends, Royal Exchange Hotel - Restaurant from BURRA is a good bar, Also, there are oven-warm and snacks available, complemented by an array of both cold and hot drinks. As a rule, most courses are prepared in a short time for you and served, Additionally, they serve you authentic Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
