Here you can find the menu of Koibito in Sydney. At the moment, there are 33 dishes and drinks on the card. You can inquire about changing offers via phone. What Daryl Grimes likes about Koibito:

I had been living in Sydney for six years but never notice this one! Locating at the second floor of a bar, it is very quiet and serves great food. My routine is one small beef bone soup ($20) with one small Serve of spicy chicken wings ($15/10 pieces). Served with 4-6 various side dishes, I cannot finish it with two people and only $35. One of the best things is that it is not easy to find a table on Friday night but... read more. What Camila Wolf doesn't like about Koibito:

Nice Korean place for hangout, their seafood pancake too thin.. but the chapjae and chicken perfectly cooked fine and tasty. Would be back here for sure once I am back. read more. The Koibito from Sydney dishes out various delicious seafood dishes. Additionally, of course, the atmosphere plays a big role, so the visitors appreciate not only the delicious meals, but also the bistro itself. Korean meals, including the typical Kimchi, Bap and Jjigae, are always found on the menu and the tables of guests in Korea. The barbecue is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
