What User likes about Peter Rabbit:

I work at the hospital - its long hours & hard work - so if I get a chance to go out for lunch it's a big treat & I have big expectations. I was training at the new RAH & popped into Peter Rabbit by chance with a group of colleagues. It's ridiculously cute & whimsical, & would be even more beautiful in summer sun. Everyone loved their meals - we took full advantage of all-day brekkie - we had the breakfast guac, camp... read more. What User doesn't like about Peter Rabbit:

And here's why. The coffee was average. Bitter and lukewarm by the time it got to my table. We arrived at 10:15am and were put at a table that was reserved at 11am - meaning we had 45 minutes for our "lazy Saturday breakfast". Luckily another group left just as we were sitting down and we took their table instead. This café is in the western part of the inner city surrounded by the University and student accommodatio...
