Fabulous food, good service too. This turned out to be a spur of the moment kind of visit. My wife told me there's a good middle eastern restaurant in Salamanca and wasn't sure of the name. So a quick search and Syra it was. Funnily enough we had just spent the whole day in Mount Field and weren't sure how dressed up we needed to be so showed up in hiking gear which was far from ideal but wasn't a big deal either. Fo... Bailey Orn doesn't like about Syra:

Last week visited, ordered eating and cocktail. the cocktail was terrible. the ties were good, chickens very tender and for the first time they try the tablatoure salat, was really good with meat and grilled halloumi. would like to try the lamb and the bark again. looks delicious on the table other. but here will not order a cocktail. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. With the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Syra becomes even more attractive, In addition, the sweet desserts of the local shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests. They also offer easily digestible Mediterranean meals available, Many guests show particularly their enthusiasm for the versatile, flavorful Chinese cuisine.
