Taking groups of people to places that are reasonably priced is a great challenge. This local hotel did just that and at seniors prices. The food was perfectly sized for our lunch requirements and the presentation could not be faulted, The venue was clean and, because we were a group we were placed in an area where we could talk without shouting. The table staff were attentive and polite. My only criticism is the slo... read more. What User doesn't like about Challa Gardens Hotel:

My husband and I went for lunch today but wont return. My husband had the Challa Sizzler steak ,it was burnt and dry and it looked disgusting and he said it was. I had crumbed prawns 3 of which I ate and the rest I put in a container they gave me to take home for a cat, they were soaked in oil and were disgusting as well, so all I had for my money were 3 prawns saturated in fat, the veg bar was nearly empty with only...
