We came here for a quick dinner with family. The food came quickly, and when one dish didn't arrive, it came out straight away when we asked. The fried vegetable dumplings were delicious, and the Chinese broccoli with oyster sauce was very nice too. Prices are good, especially for the dumplings. Five of us with 5 or 6 dishes to share cost $95. You can bring your own alcohol for a corkage charge (I think $2.50/each).... read more. What

User doesn't like about Empress of China:

The dumplings here are good - not the best in Chinatown by a long shot, but excellent value. Plates of steamed vegetarian, pork or prawn dumplings never disappoint, and having them alongside Chinese broccoli with garlic sauce makes for a good cheap meal. This is a great venue to have a few drinks before you head out - their BYO policy is pretty loose. Not the friendliest service, the best decor or the roomiest tables... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. Let yourself be thrilled in Empress of China from Melbourne by versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine that's authentically prepared in a wok, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. Look forward to the enjoyment of scrumptious vegetarian meals, On the menu there are also several Asian meals.
