The Menu of The Black Lamb from Gold Coast includes about 100 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$7. What User likes about The Black Lamb: This is a lovely little coffee shop near a hospital clinic. The choice of food for this little place was really good with some lovely healthy options. There is a little outside area to sit. The staff were friendly and helpful. The only problem would be parking, there is extremely limited street parking. There is a big car park underneath, if you are visiting the clinic it is free read more. What User doesn't like about The Black Lamb: We stopped into this busy little eatery for lunch on our way to a doctor's appointment. There is outside seating only and a tight but good little menu to choose from. We opted for toasted sandwiches (pulled pork and chicken, cheese and avocado - alas no avocado on the day) accompanied by a good flavoured coffee. There were some tasty looking salads on display as well as some burgers that seemed to be popular. IT is ea... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. The Black Lamb from Gold Coast is a comfortable café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a hot coffee or a sweet chocolate, In the morning they serve a tasty breakfast here. It should not be forgotten that there is a large diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
