Parkview is one of our regular dining choices when we visit Orange for work, and we have never been disappointed. This week we were greeted by a young lady who showed warmth and a sense of humour. The service was attentive without being intrusive. The food delicious! My husband had the Swordfish special and I had the Lamb Backstrap. The ingredients are so fresh and cooked perfectly. We look forward to returning! read more. What User doesn't like about Parkview Hotel:

We have dined at the Parkview before a year or two ago...they definitely must of changed their Chefs! The pasta was very bland and tasteless, the vegetables were raw. My husband ordered the lamb cutlets..incredibly over cooked, he could hardly chew through it! We won't be returning or recommending. read more.
