We went as for a family celebration all of us over 18 some of us had the Monday steak special which was good value for money, but we were not that impressed with the beer of the month other people had various meals off the main menu all enjoyed there meals but no stand outs. The service was good and friendly, we ordered drinks which came quickly while we looked through the menu and chatted as our family tend to do whe... read more.

What User doesn't like about The Cornerstone Alehouse:

Food was pretty crap, ordered fried Camembert and the cheese was still cold on the inside. Ordered onion rings and they were swimming in oil, partner ordered a parmy and it was dry and hard on the edges, overall environment is nice but food needs major work! read more.
