The "Queenie" is a splendid country pub, set on Kangaroo Island in "downtown" Kingscote, the capital of KI. Apart from the usual pub offerings, they have also a pub food menu that is fine. Here, you will mix with the locals, rather than the visitor bar that is the nearby Aurora Ozone Hotel. At night, the place is on a slight rise with lights all about, like it is a special place. And it is. There is a bottle shop next doo... read more. What User doesn't like about Queenscliff:

Rustic place. You book and pay for the food at the cash desk then it is served at the table. Good quality of food, possibility to eat kangaroo meat. The desserts are also good. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. If you want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Queenscliff from KINGSCOTE is a good bar, and easily digestible Japanese meals are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat. One should particularly acknowledge the dishes from the Australian continent of this restaurant, Delicious particularly are the Sashimi and specialties like Inside-Out that this place is known for.
