This is a happening pub to be in, the staff are wonderful, the food is awesome and the beer is cold....what else is there. Well worth a visit...one of the best huge variety on the menu and well presented on the plate. Our only complaint is the noise level can be a bit much at times for a quiet conversation, but that is only a minor thing and the pub has no control over that. read more. What User doesn't like about Mary Ellen Hotel:

for lunch. the first time since it's reopened. I had booked. we were placed in a bent stand that was not much space and was impractical. the lunch was average and above price for quality and fresh compared to other places to eat around...town kids meal was $15. pizzas had a very small amount to eat. carvings were overboiled and small. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only delectable meals, but also a large and comprehensive selection of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, Furthermore, the visitors love the successful combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. The experience of various sports events is just as much a big draw, when you are in this sports bar, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian meals with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
