This restaurant is really budget friendly. They serve huge amount of serving and worth every penny. We love the rustica soup, crispy pata and the cheesy pusit. We usually dine here after mass because the kids love their soup so much. read more. What User doesn't like about Rustica Restaurant:

The foods are quickly prepared upon order and still taste good. My personal favourites are crispy buntot, sinigang ni rustica, and pansit buko. Fruit shakes are served in a big glass and could be shared by two. With regard to ambiance, could be a bit...crowded and noisy especially when full since the tables are set close to each other. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. The tasty and fresh juices listed on the drinks menu, perfectly complete the meals of the establishment, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. Not to be left out is the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
