The first thing that struck me about this place was it was obvious that there was a great employee culture. The staff were chirpy and happy to make conversation with the customers just as readily as they would to each other without shirking their work. The next good sign was they had a troupe of regulars whom they knew by name and their regular order from the extensive coffee list. Before I went in there for breakfast... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. With the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Cafe Fika becomes even more attractive. For breakfast a delicious brunch is offered here. There are also delicious dishes available, typical for Europe. Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
