Dined there one evening with a group of twenty and the food was plentiful and of good quality. Service was excellent and those service quick. We were made to feel most welcome. read more. What User doesn't like about Port of Call cafe:

Lets start with the good, Nice location and premises and the food's reasonably priced. Now the not so good. I ordered a salmon focaccia and a long black. The focaccia wasn't great, way too much sour cream was used, this thing was drenched in it. As for my coffee, without exaggeration it's one of the worst I've had, very weak, incredibly watery and it came with this gross froth that I don't think was intentional. The... read more.
