A slice of Italian paradise in Newcastle - thank God! I came here with my husband and mother-in-law who are both from Italy, they absolutely loved it and have been back since. We tried the piadina which were made fresh and hot, with good quality cheese and fresh ingredients. We also had coffee and a slice of the ricotta cake. And the cannoli. And i would like to come back and eat them all again, and again, and again.... read more. What User doesn't like about The Umbrian:

OMG. Bad food, that's not Italian food! The cappuccino tasteless, the bad dessert (cannoli siciliani? What is this?). Still they have to study hard to prepare food. Only good thing is the café location. A really bad experience with my colleagues. We will not return to this café. read more. The Umbrian from Newcastle is a cozy café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, In addition, the charming desserts of the local shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
