As a Chinese gourmet, by DNA and by practice, I vouch that the food here is as good as you get in a restaurant in northern China. I went five times in three weeks when I visited Canberra last month. Their chilli and sour soup is the best I have had since last trip to Beijing. I didn't try the usual stir fry dishes offered by most Australian Chinese restaurants. I only go for the dumplings and the duck dish... read more. What User doesn't like about CBD Dumpling House:

I walked in the restaurant today and tried to get a table. It is very busy and full house. Try to ask the staff for how and where to queue up But the staff keep on asking you to wait outside with an impatient attitude. There are over 15 people standing at the entrance and you do not know where to queue and who is the first one! I believe if the restaurant makes a better arrangement for waiting guests. I believe... At CBD Dumpling House from Canberra it's possible to enjoy delicious vegetarian dishes, that were made without any animal meat or fish, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Even the versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine is very popular among visitors, besides, the creative blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion.
