The wagyu was amazing. Cooking the meat yourself is also fun. They give everyone a lot of delicious entries for free. The staff were friendly. We will go there again read more. What Tyson Hane doesn't like about Dae Jang Kum:

While the place seems to do well with Chinese clientele looking for a place to try out Korean cuisine, the standard in essence is bland (positive) or plainly unsatisfactory (negative). I guess the level of satisfaction could depend on whether you are just wanting have a casual lunch or dinner or you are actually wanting to eat out. There are clearly some better options read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. The Dae Jang Kum from Sydney serves various flavorful seafood dishes, Furthermore, connoisseurs of Korean cuisine will have their fill at the eatery with dishes like Bap, Kimchi or Jjigae. The meals are prepared according to authentic Asian style, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
