Still our favourite in the area for Indian Takeaway. But since our last visit, the food seems to have 'lifted' in flavour.

Rather than my usual spicy selections I went for a Chicken Korma, preferring something very mild this time. It was actually really tasty with some great 'mild' spicy flavours that I haven't found in a Korma before. We've had work team lunches here with Indian team members and they always comme... Firstly the serving size of curry and rice were very good. However, despite asking three times that my chicken Madras be cooked extra spicy it was more like a Korma. Saffron rice tasted like plain rice with a little food colouring. Garlic naan was wafer thin and not much taste. To be fair when I enquired if the waitress had asked for extra hit, she did check and asked if I wanted something else no charge, I declined.... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. With original Asian spices scrumptious traditional menus are prepared in the kitchen of Billu's in Harris Park. Besides, the creative blend of different meals with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the customers - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you, tasty vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available.
