While not the most 'flash' restaurant around, the food was excellent. Our group of around a dozen, in combination with a local church group, just about filled the restaurant. Despite this, the service was fast, the food choices were quite wide and the plates were filled. The food prices were reasonable and all meals were home-cooked. A bit noisy with so many people in the room and the atmosphere was so-so. Parking wa... read more.

What User doesn't like about Trader Dukes:

The service was great - the place is neat and tidy - separated from the bar etc - a place to take the children. The food was enjoyable and should have any left over you are supplied with a container to take it home with you - it has a great variety of food and the prices are reasonable. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. Various fine seafood dishes are served by the Trader Dukes from Caboolture, This sports bar is a popular hangout for visitors who enjoy watching the latest games or races on the big TV while enjoying food and drinks. Here they also cook South American fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian dishes with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
