Really enjoyed our dinner here. We had the extremely generous sized seafood platter, was definitely enough for 4 not 2 people. Was served by the lovely and attentive Kevina who was happy to answer all our questions and ensure our dietary needs were meet. read more. What User doesn't like about Edward's Waterfront:

Come for lunch and have to say the woman who served us was the most unhappy server I've encountered for awhile. We were seated and then she attended another's table who was seated after us and took their orders first. She also gave us an unapproving look when we did not order drinks. The food was average, the service was worse, the location is great and the wine list extensive but unfortunately not enough to bring me... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. In case you're craving some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delicious meals, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here. Important are also the dishes from Australia of this place, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes in the menu.
