We are a group of four who eat here nearly every Friday night. Why? Because the food is excellent. Sure the furnishings are outdated but this is easily disregarded as the bowls of delicious food take over the table. I always judge a Chinese restaurant on two simple dishes, short soup and sweet and sour pork. If they do these two well, chances are the rest of the menu is going to be good too. Lucky Dragon excels not j... read more. What User doesn't like about Lucky Dragon Chinese Restaurant:

I did not go here intentionally I was invited by friends and was told it was great. The curtains which were once white are now yellow, most of our cutlery and plates were dirty, the tablecloth has probably never been washed. We wanted to run for our lives but couldn't, it was like being in a nightmare, all I needed was for Johnny Depp to wait on us. The fried rice consisted of just three ingredients, the spring rolls w... read more.
