Great location, warm attentive service and a great selection of local wines. There were 3 of us in our party and 2 out of 3 mains were sensational. I had the Osso Bucco and whilst the flavours were delicious, the meat was hard and dry around the edges. I mentioned this to the waitress when she asked how our meals were and she said she'd inform the chef. However I didn't hear anything back and there was no apology or... read more. What User doesn't like about Union Bank Wine Bar & Restaurant:

Great place if you are a food and wine snob. Food and drinks are very expensive. Unless you consider 4 florettes of cauliflower and broccoli with a little sauce and a couple of smashed nuts, called a salad at $16, good value. So called salad was bland and insipid. A boutique stubbie of beer was $11. Wine prices were $10 upwards. Many bottles of wine were >$100. Most expensive was $2200. My friend had veggie soup at$... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. Union Bank Wine Bar & Restaurant from Orange is a suitable bar to a drink after work, and sit with friends or alone, Furthermore, the customers of the establishment enjoy the comprehensive selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. One should particularly acknowledge the courses from the Australian continent of this restaurant, the guests love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks.
