We used to live on Weewanda Street, so given my passion for Thai food, you'd think this would have become my local. Unfortunately not. The service is great, but the food I tried here was nothing special. I haven't tried every single dish, so perhaps I've missed something. Anyway, the food doesn't make my mouth water thinking about it, even though I'm feeling peckish right now. Sabai has a nice atmosphere, but it's re... read more.
