User likes about Lindenow Pub:

We swung by for dinner on Saturday night. Located about 20 minutes from Bairnsdale, Lindenow is the quintessential country town, pub, post office, farm supply yard and organic food store. The pub has an Irish flavour but still very Australian and this is reflection of the publican, Shane. The locals are friendly and everyone seems to know everyone, all very community based. During dinner, music was provided via one m... read more.

What User doesn't like about Lindenow Pub:

I called in to check the menu to ensure there was a GF option for my son with coeliac disease before we went for dinner this evening. Unfortunately, the publican was very dismissive as he told me that they had no gluten free options on the menu. I appreciate that it can be challenging to accommodate dietary requirements. But we could have worked out a easy solution to the situation. (eg a pan-fried steak and salad) We w... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious menus from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good variety of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the customers also love. Even if you're only a bit hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
