Had lunch with my husband after playing croquet. Great food served quickly and efficiently at a good price.

Pumpkin and goats cheese tart with rocket and Apple with date chutney. What a treat! Husband had Middle Eastern style poached eggs with Turkish Bread and roasted tomato chutney. He described this as "rather nice". Coffee was good. Therefore a very pleasant lunch. read more. What User doesn't like about Happy Wife:

Let down again! Have called in here on previous trips South and will sadly not be returning, seems managers don't care about customers unless one of the staff's regulars as we witnesses whilst trying to get someones attention on arrival. No ambience, less than average service with staff not even able to smile and over priced dishes which left us very disappointed. The crumpets are smaller than our last trip and we cou... read more. The
