We have been going to Grill On The Hill pretty much since it first opened in the early 90s. Over the past 7 or so years the children of the founder Peter, have grown up and are now running of the restaurant. And they are they are doing a superb job. The quality of the produce namely the AGED MEAT is still of the highest quality and the cooking process incorporating a gas heating process under volcanic rocks is very cl... read more. What User doesn't like about Charcoal Grill on the Hill:

Beautiful façade, classy entry. Walked in with a group, promptly seated. Noisy. Efficient waitress but low empathy. Food? Scotch fillet steak 300gm @$49 +++ with shredded cabbage and average chips and Cos lettuce leaves (1 leaf per person) Took me 30 minutes to munch through.. Those who ate similar left much gristle on the plate. And a chicken fillet @$37 The wine @ $80 was not cellared properly. The restaurant was busy b... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. At Charcoal Grill on the Hill in Kew, exquisite Australian cuisines are freshly cooked for you with a lot of attention and the typical products like bush tomatoes and caviar limes, Customers can enjoy the dishes from restaurant through a catering service on-site or at the festival.
