This food court has a vibrant atmosphere with plenty of available seating. There are a large number of vendors serving a high quality dishes across a variety of different cuisines. This is one of my places for meet up with friends for lunch in the Melbourne CBD. read more. What User doesn't like about Paramount Food Court:

AS Thomas V said below, just another food court in a city that doesn't need so many such food courts. Probably best for those who look more for value than quality. It is though in a convenient part of town, i.e east end of Bourke...Street. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. At Paramount Food Court in Melbourne you can savor delicious vegetarian menus, that are free from any animal meat or fish, and you can look forward to the scrumptious traditional seafood cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Paramount Food Court. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, Particularly the inventive fusions of different foods offer the customers a remarkable taste experience of this extraordinary fusion cuisine.
