We went for dinner last night, hubby booked a table by the fire, it was toasty and warm. We were in and out in under an hour with entree and main and a couple of drinks, Perfect. Food is good pub food nothing super flash but yummy, filling and fresh. I've seen Dan turn around another small town pub and this is just the same. Excellent job, it's so good to see a small pub in a small town doing so well after all these y... read more. What

User doesn't like about The Plough Inn:

Really disappointed... have eaten here previously and was lovely . Biggest problem was exceptionally long wait for food and then to be told they couldn't accommodate my order .. food finally arrived and was stodgy and the salad was limp and not a spot of dressing in sight ... my husband ordered the fish ... same deal and no tartare... this was a function so they new numbers to cater for...
