I chose The Workshop for lunch for 3 of us to celebrate my father's 94th birthday. I requested a quieter part of the restaurant for my hearing impaired parents. We were thoughtfully seated in a great spot. The staff were so welcoming, attentive, helpful and friendly. They were also very helpful with getting us in and seated as I was concerned about my parents' mobility. We had a bruschetta and dips entree to share th... read more. What User doesn't like about The Workshop Kitchen @ Quality Powerhouse Tamworth:

We were very excited to try the Workshop after traveling past a few times and seeing the refurbishments. So during our last stay in Tamworth we decided to have dinner here. The bruschetta was ordinary for entree and the mains were average and overpriced. The biggest plus was the service was excellent. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this local sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. One should particularly acknowledge the meals from Australia of this place, the menu also includes fine vegetarian recipes.
