On our friends advice we dined here recently and were pleasantly surprised. The drinks were generous in size which is becoming rare these days. The meals also were extremely generous in size and delicious to boot. We all had different options and were pleased with the choices. Staff were friendly and efficient. Only small complaint was the height of the table. No good for really short people. A pleasant experience fo... read more. What User doesn't like about Chill n Grill:

The food was above average, lamb cutlets and beef schnitzel, but on the night we were there there were only 2 wait staff, one of whom mainly maned the bar. We waited more than 20 minutes to have our order taken, and then eventually gave up on ordering dessert as we had sat another 25 minutes after our mains plates had been removed. I understand that a party of 10 turned into a party of 20, and as such they were unders... read more.
