What User likes about CH on Peel: A very good dining experience. The menu offered a great selection for dinner and the service was slick and ideal. The wine list was very good. The chicken Maryland and pork roulade were excellent choices and large servings representing good value for money. We shared the confit duck spring rolls which were very nice. All accompanied by a good bottle of Aussie red. read more. What User doesn't like about CH on Peel: A lunch date with friends to a venue we had been talking about for some time. We chose the $35 lunch menu which is good value with choice of main and dessert and a beverage. The Chardonnay was a lovely drop - often house wines...More read more.
