The Blacksmiths Inn is a short trip up One Tree Hill Road, is a old fashion pub with lovely meals, I had the Guinness Pie and Vegetables was a tasty homemade style pie my husband had the roast of the day which had a large serve of roast. We had a window seat over looking paddocks, they also have a lovely outdoor beer garden.

The staff were very friendly well worth a visit. read more. What User doesn't like about Blacksmiths Inn:

The staff were friendly, the meal was served but I found my steak only warm and not hot. This may have something to do with the strange belief that hot meat has to rest before being served. I had to ask for bread rolls and they were delivered to the rest of the room when most of the main meals had been consumed. The desserts were very slow coming to the tables. They did explain that too many had ordered the same dess... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. Blacksmiths Inn from ONE TREE HILL is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the visitors also love. Many international menus are also known in the kitchen of the Blacksmiths Inn, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
