It's the second time I have been here recently and on both occasions I have found it welcoming and friendly. As I was there early on this occasion and wanted today's newspaper, she walked down the street to get it for me, thank you. The coffee and croissant was good and they even had French background music. read more. What User doesn't like about The Little French Cafe:

Had lunch here with my wife, great French retro theme. The menu could have had a few more 'French inspired' items on the menu, was a bit disappointed about this, always love the cruffins and coffee.
