Needed somewhere for lunch before seeing a show at Capitol Theatre. The Sabb Verr Cafe inside the Chamberlain Hotel was close and just opening for the lunch trade. Good pub food, tasted fresh and was served quickly. Counter staff very nice and friendly. read more. What Nicola Grady doesn't like about Chamberlain Hotel: Had three dishes here, while they were tasty it turned out this was due to the excess salt/msg factor. Expensive place probably relying on its appeal with westerners. There is much better value Thai cuisine from many of the surrounding places including Chonsiam and Thainatown. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WiFi is available at no extra cost. A visit to Chamberlain Hotel becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, Dishes from Thailand are prepared here with the well-known spices and (fish-) sauces. The pleasure of various sports events is just as much a big draw, when you are in this sports bar, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
