My mum brought me here because she had been here the week before and enjoyed it. She did however warn me about the clutter and gardens overgrown and explained there was only one person here at the moment running it 7 days a week with no help. We were served by a lovely man who couldn't help us enough. He was cooking in his kitchen and the smell was amazing! We had tea and scones, the scones were fresh from the oven a... read more. What User doesn't like about Dimities Cottage Restaurant & Tea Rooms:

This could be a little gem of a place as it has heaps of character and atmosphere but unfortunately the gardens have been let go and the shop needs a good clean up of dried dusty flowers amongst the gifts. It was lovely sitting on the Verandah with olde world charm and the fellow running it was nice but the place needs a good tidy up, remove dead pot plants etc. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served.
