What User likes about Wave Rock Bistro:

We decided to try the Bistro for dinner and it seemed to be a popular spot with locals. We arrived early as we had children with us but it appears they don't commence serving till 6.00pm. There is a reasonable choice given the location. We chose to select our meat, which you then cook yourself on a couple of large indoor BBQs. The salad bar was well stocked with fresh salads as well as some hot dishes- although we noti... read more. What

User doesn't like about Wave Rock Bistro:

We went to the bistro on Saturday night looking for a break from cooking. We ordered a drink and looked at the menu (admittedly did not read the small print til later). My husband ordered sausages and was given a plate with raw ones...on it and was pointed to the corner of the room to cook them on the grill. I chose just to eat from the salad/hot veggie bar. The curried sausages were just passable, the lasagne tasted... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. Wave Rock Bistro from Hyden is a suitable bar to a drink after work, and sit with friends or alone, The customers of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. In addition, you can order fresh prepared grill goods, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian meals with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
